EBERHARD CONFESSES.

August Eberhard confessed in full so he could marry Miss Caroline Wade, an actress, of New York. He had wounded himself in the leg with a pistol bullet, and when arrested, near Peter-son, N. J., yesterlay morning, told a story of being shot by robbers at the time his aunt was killed, but weakened under examination by the police and made the confession.

Eberhard, who was engaged to the ousin he tried to kill when he shot his aunt dead in a lonely spot out-ide of Hackensack last Saturday night, said that he was in love with the actress, but that he had not enough morey t marry her, and had planned the murde of his aunt to get it. Showing little or no emotion, the former grocer's clerk told a story of wandering for four days as far north as Foulard Silks Pongee and Satin Finish, 59c to and Satin Finish, 59c to He also disclosed the hiding place of the money he stole from his aunt's dead body, and a cigsr box, containing all the money with the exception of about $100, was found yesterday afternoon.

Miss Wade is at present playing with he Six Blonde Typewriters Company at Morr son's Theater, Rockaway Beach. She she was asked last night what she knew of

"I cannot tell what all this story of his means," she said. "I never heard of the man or saw him. I do not know him. What he has said about being an admirer of mine is absolutely false."

"I will have Eberhard indicted at once," said Prosecutor Koester t.day.

"He will be trued within two weeks. As the case is practically complete against him, I shall present it in four or five hours and the whole affair should not take more than one day to finish. Police in Chicago are seeking William Berkman who is supposed to have aided in luring the two women to America."

"E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago, III—Gen tlemen—In 1897 I had a disease of the stomach and bowels. In the spring of 1902 I bought a bortle of Kodel and the benefit I received all the gold of Georgia could not buy. May you live long and prosper. Yours very truly C. N. Corneil, Roding, Ga., Ang., 27, 1906" Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

STATE FARMERS' INSTITUTE. The Virginia State Farmers' Institute meets in Richmond August 4, 5 and 6 and the managers are desirous of making it the banner meeting in the history of the organization.

The Business Men's Association and Chamber of Commerce of Richmond have taken an active interest in the mat ter and have prepared an entertainment programme that will insure a most enjoyab'e time to all who attend. Professor Soule, who has done so much for the business of agriculture in Virginia, is coming from Georgia to take part in the meeting, and every prember of the organization, as well as every farmer in the State who has the best interest of his calling at heart, are expected to at end this meeting. O her speakers of national repute, the best authorities in their several fields of endeavor, will also appear on the programme and talk on matters of which they have made a special study and are competent to speak with authority.

Kodol will without doubt help snyone who Note will willout doubt help anyone who has stomach disorders or stomach troubles Take Kedol today and continue it for the short time that is necessary to give you complete relief. Kodol is sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

SHOT BY REJECTED SUITOR. M'se Amanda Merse, a pretty 19-year old girl, who lives with her father, Thomas O. Morse, in Norfolk, was shot down on Campostella bridge last night by Berjamin F. Gilbert, aged 20, whose sdvances she rejected. A mob of 500 threstened tolynch Gilbert. Policeman Powers, who had the prisoner in charge, drew his pistol to keep the crowd in check. Miss Morse was of a party of six your g men and women who walked out on the bridge between 9 and 10 o'clock. G lbert was seen to follow them. the party stopped he took a position not far distant, calling Miss Morse to come to him, The young woman walked almost up to him and then turned as if to raturn to her companions. Then it was that Gilbert drew a pistol and fired twice, one of the balls taking affect in the victim's back the other in her side. The three young men of the party grabbed Gilbert, who threw his pistol In-to the river. Policeman Powers soon arrived and placed him under arrest. In the crowd that soon collected, was the father of Miss Morse, who made a despreate effect to get at Gilbert. Gilbert took his arrest coolly, asking for a cigaratte while waiting for the patrol wagon. He said he shot the girl because she refused to marry him.

Miss Morse was desperately wounded, and her chances for recovery are alim.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to W. N. B. Byrne
